"I feel that I would be doing an injustice to you if I did not send you a statement of my case." writes Mrs. David W. Guice, of Hamburg, Franklin Co., Miss. "I had liver complaint and indigestion. Everything that I ate disagreed with me, I suffered all the time with swimming in my head; heart beat too fast; my feet and hands were cold all the time. Did not sleep well at all. Was able to get about but very little. I commenced to use Dr. Fierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pienant Pellets' in May, 1897, and by December I could begin to get about very well. Have been doing my work ever since. Feel better "Vin I have for several years."

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivaled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradiented.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a juxdruff there is no failing hair, but a lux-uriant growth of glossy, soft hair is cer-tain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 19c, in stamps to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. E. S. A Friend of Divorcers

Divorced persons who wish to be married have a champion and advocate in the person of Rev. George W. Brownback, the famous wife-hunting parson, of Reading, Pa., who found his affinity three months ago after a long search. In a sermon before the workmen of the Textile Machine Company yesterday Pastor Brownback took issue with the Reading ministers, who recently met and resolved to discourage divorces by refusing to marry divorced persons. 'It is a most cruel inconsideration of these Reading ministers to refuse to marry divorced folk," declared Pastor Brownback. "So far as I am concerned, I will marry all who come to me with a license granted by the Berks court, for St. Paul says: 'marriage is honorable in all.'''

Dilating further on the marriage ques-Dilating further on the marriage ques-tion, the wife-hunting parson said: "Marriage as it now exists in many cases is a mere human institution. Where two human beings are drawn together by love, union and happiness are the result. Such marriages are divine. Marriages today in most cases are merely an outward tie, impelled by custom, policy, interest, necessity, founded not even in friendship, to say nothing of love. I don't believe in any woman living with a brute. A true wife acknowledges her husband's authority, but she must realize that she is at the head of the house and not the boss. May the good Lord deliver us from a boss in petticoats. If some women would put the same energy in their housework as they do in gossip, many beer clubs in Reading would have to disband and husbands would stay home with their wives. A good wife may be able to embroider or paint a sunset, but when Esau comes home

Would like to think so, but the hypothesis, like an apology, explains what it does not excuse. To be quite frank, like Dr. S. Commencing Saturday, Ms. 28, 1904, and continuing each Saturday, Ms. 28, 190 men who attend, and keep away so many who go not to church or chapel? One would like to think so, but the hypothonly means possible of conveying to the common people the truths of the Gospel. Today every man, woman and child can read better sermons than nine-tenths of the preachers—Anglican, Catholic and Nonconformists-can either write or deliver. But those who can study at their eisure the printed sermons of Jeremy Taylor, of Wesley, of Newman and of Robertson may be excused for go-ing to sleep while seven-eights, let us say, of modern preachers drone ing to sleep while seven-eights, let us say, of modern preachers drone out their ill-considered, uninspired weekly commonplaces. We would not be understood to imply that the art of preaching—for it is a great art—is extinct. But the artists are few. Convincing eloquence is a rare English gift, and thousands who would gladly go to church for the purpose of prayer and worship are scared away by the dismal platitudes they are constrained to hear from the lips of their minister. In church and chapel there might easily be organized a corps of preaching friars gifted with inspiring eloquence, but designed to the control of the propose of prayer and worship are scared away by the dismal platitudes they are constrained to hear from the lips of their minister. Swallowed a Pin. While Miss Rose Biggio, of New York was dressing a few days ago, a brass pin with a black head she was holding in her mouth slipped down her throat just as she was going to sneeze. The pin simply tickled her throat a little, so she paid no attention to it except when the tickling was resumed. She went about her work as a candy maker until her mother took her to a hospital She laughed when she told the entry clerk her trouble. After Dr. George E. Brewer had located the pin in the windpipe with the X-ray, the OTTERBURN LITHIA WATER.—This water is indicated in all affections due to Uric Acid, Diathesis, Gout, Rheumatism, stone in the Bladder, Kidneys or Liver Bright's Disease and Kidney Diseases of very form For sale by WARFIELD & HALL, WARFIELD & HALL, Bright's Disease and Kidney Diseases of very form For sale by WARFIELD & HALL, Sole Agents Cor.
